

Course name: INTRODUCTION OF CITY PLANNING

Course code: ARCH 350

Course hours: Credit hours 2, Contact hours 3

Course Pre-requisites: None

Course Description

The course introduced the definitions of the basic principles and theories in urban planning and planning, planning objectives and objectives, what are the urban area and the reasons for its development, development and classification. The concept of urban planning is discussed in terms of characteristics, levels and a value that must be met in the urban planning process, then study the urban planning criteria of the city, and begins with the study of city planning, specifying its nature, scope, objectives and characteristics. He then discusses the theories of the urban structure of the city in terms of the factors affecting the formation of the urban structure of the city and theories of the composition and planning of the contemporary city and the common characteristics of these theories, and then study and analysis of the planning foundations of all elements of the city and the future of urban planning.

Course Main Objective

In this course, the students will be to:

- Introduce to the concepts of urban planning development and the importance of planning.
- Present the elements of the urban development plan.
- Develop study land development plans and future directions.
- Knowledge of theories about society and its performance.
- Develop the economic wealth of the individual and society through planning.
- Evaluate planning and development projects.

Course Learning Outcomes

After the completion of this course, the students will be able to;

- Introduce of the concept of development and the importance of planning and its role through them.
- Analyze and evaluate urban planning and development projects.
- Implement of urban planning theories about society and its performance.
- Promote the student responsibility for his self-learning, which requires the use of means to search for new information in the field of urban planning investigation.
- Prepare full land use for new urban area and state the methods of urban integration between the old and new urban planning.

Course evaluation

- Quizzes, practical assignments
- Weekly/biweekly reviews
- Midterm examination
- Attendance
- Final examination

Course recommended books

- The Planning city, Michael W. Newell and Marina, (2004), N.Y.

Course References

- Comeback Cities: A Blueprint for Urban Neighbourhood Revival, Grogan, Paul, Prosecco, 2000.
- British Town Planning and Urban Design, Smith Morris et al., 1997, Longman, Singapore.
- Definitions of Rural: A Handbook for Health Policy Makers and Researchers. University of North Carolina, 1998, USA.